CODE OF CONDUCT

The Crestwood Preparatory College Code of Conduct embraces the ideas of:

- personal honesty and integrity
- academic honesty
- respect for people and for property
- responsibility for one's own behaviour

Student distribution or possession of illegal substances (drugs) or weapons or involved in any violence, vandalism or theft will face any or all of the following:

- parental involvement;
- suspension; and/or
- expulsion; and/or
- potential police involvement.

Any behaviour that violates any of the above will be reported to the student's home school and may be placed in the OSR.

Attendance Requirements

Summer school courses are intense learning experiences that require full participation by students. Students are expected to be in full attendance each day of the course, and any student with more than one absence may be required to withdraw from the course. No refund will be given. If you will absent from school please have your parent/guardian contact the school at 416-391-1441.

Dress Code

Students are required to dress appropriately for an effective learning environment. Presenting a bodily appearance or wearing clothing which is disruptive, provocative, revealing, profane, vulgar, offensive or obscene, or which endangers the health and safety of the student or others is prohibited.
